

ANNUAL JUNE GAMBOLS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS TO BE HELD AT THE NEAR BY RESORTS

Final Events of the Season's Activities to Start With Luncheons and to End With Dancing at Night.

WHILE May was given over largely by the clubs to business meetings, election and installation of officers, June will bring the annual outings at some of the nearby resorts, which are fitting finales to the season's activities, and afford to the members a day's enjoyment in the country before separating for their summer holidays. The Shelburne, Brighton Beach, has been selected by some of the clubs for their outdoor fetes, which, in many instances, will be all day events, starting with luncheon and ending in the evening with dancing.

The Drama Comedy will have its June gambol at the Shelburne on the 18th, and the Fresh Air Fund for Adult and Elderly People will have its third spring luncheon on June 13 at the same place. The New York Theatre Club will have its annual outing and luncheon there on June 7, where, on the same day, the Cameo Branch of the International Sunshine Society has its seventh annual spring outing. The Woman's Democratic Club has its outing and luncheon at the Shelburne on June 21, and on June 6 the Five Hundred Card Club will have its seventh annual luncheon and card party at the same hotel. The Minerva Club will have its annual outing on June 7 at Forest Hill Inn, Forest Hills, L. I., and the Entre-Nous Dancing Club has its outing on Saturday at the Hotel Gramatan, Lawrence Park, Bronxville.

The National California Club, Mrs. Thomas J. Vivian, president, will have a garden party given for it on Thursday by its vice-president, Mrs. G. Up-ton Hallett, at her home in East Orange. Mrs. William Cummings Story will give a reception to the members of the National Society of Patriotic Women, Mrs. William R. Stewart, president, on Friday at the Westchester Country Club grounds.

For the Minerva Club outing members may take trains direct to the Forest Hill Inn from the Pennsylvania station at frequent intervals. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and will be followed by auction bridge, for which souvenirs have been provided. Mrs. William W. Beale is chairman. Mrs. Frederick Clark Brown, vice-chairman. Others on the committee include Mrs. Wilmet R. Boag, Mrs. W. E. Brumaghin, Mrs. Robert Francis Cartwright, Mrs. Burton W. Dwyer, Mrs. Grace Ellsworth, Mrs. C. T. Haviland, Mrs. James W. Robins, Mrs. Sallie Furin, Mrs. David G. Ward, Mrs. John A. Williams and Mrs. Frederick W. Waller.

Drama Comedy's gambol will be one of the largest events ever given by the club and will start with luncheon at 2 o'clock. This will be followed by dancing and later dinner. On the reception committee are Mrs. Margaret Metcalf Voss, Mrs. Owen Downes, Mrs. Conrad Stenudorff, Mrs. Emeline Hinkley, Mrs. W. H. H. Moller, Mrs. A. F. Burke, Misses Louise Henry, Henrietta Collins and O. O'Donohue. In addition to these there will be a men's committee composed of Mr. Robert G. Hargrave, who will be master of ceremonies, and Messrs. Harry Bunnell and J. H. Hinkley, chairman, Pierre De Nu, W. W. Wil-mot, Gilbert Kuh, W. J. Martin, A. F. Gerke, Carl Fiquie, Richard McCann, W. A. Shen, Dr. A. B. Clarke, Dr. Manasee and Col. W. T. Wood.

The last meeting of the season of the club will be held at the Hotel Astor on Thursday afternoon. At the cabaret meeting last Friday the president, Mrs. Edyth Totten, announced that the place of first vice-president will remain vacant for a period of one year in honor of the memory of Mrs. J. H. Foster. Mrs. Foster died at Roosevelt Hospital on Monday.

The outing of the Entre-Nous Dancing Club, Mrs. Timothy Martin O'Connor, president, will take the form of a dinner and dance. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock and will be followed by dancing, two hours later. Trains leave Grand Central Terminal every fifteen minutes from 5 to 6 o'clock. Last train leaves at 6:15, reaching Bronxville at 7:15. Reservations for the cabaret meeting should be made early to Mrs. O'Connor at 511 West 112th street.

"A Talk on Art" will be given for the Verdi Club, Mrs. Joseph J. Jenkins, president, by the sculptress, Lily C. Mayer, at the Hotel McAlpin on Wednesday. There also will be an exhibition of the honors painted by Mrs. Mayer for the Skylarks ball of the club given on April 23 at the Waldorf. An interesting feature of the meeting on Wednesday will be the formal acceptance by the club of a large bust of Verdi, made especially for and presented to it by Mrs. Mayer. Countess Alfredo Janni and Mrs. Luigi Solari will be the guests of honor. Tea and music will also be included in the afternoon's programme, and to this all the members of the club and their friends are cordially invited. The musical programme will include operatic arias from "Roméo and Juliette" and "La Traviata," sung by Edna Moreland, who will be chairman of the reception committee. There also will be songs by Joseph Mitchell, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Raphael, and piano solos by Alice Sothorn. Mrs. Samuel Rosseter Betts, a member of the club, will recite "The Birth of the Opera," and Bohumil Sykora, cellist, will play numbers by Russian composers.

Euterpe Club, Mrs. Alonzo Berton Janssen, president, had its springtime luncheon, the last event of the season, on Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria. Several well known artists were among the guests. They included Miss Yvonne de Treville, Mme. Dindtrich, the Russian prima donna, and Emily Nichols Hatch, portrait painter. During the luncheon there were vocal numbers by Miss Minnie Lamberts and music by the Wolfie Orchestra.

The Daughters of Ohio in New York closed its season last week with the election of officers. Mrs. Edmund W. Kingsland, the president, being unanimously reelected. The members of the society attended a matinee performance on Wednesday of "The Champion," in compliment to the star, Grant Mitchell, who is an Ohio man. After the play Mr. Mitchell held a reception for the Daughters.

A dance and bazaar for the benefit of the disabled war veterans at the Prox Hill Hospital will be given on Saturday at the Seventh Regiment Armory under the auspices of the Knickerbocker Civic League. Mrs. Grace Strachen Forsyth is chairman of the committee in charge of the entertainment.

The Theatre Club held its final meeting of the season at Hotel Astor Tuesday, when Mrs. George M. Clyde was formally installed as president. The returning president, Mrs. John H. Parker, was made honorary president for life and a purse of gold was presented to her in recognition of her six years of service to the club. Mrs. Helen Wells, retiring first vice-president, who had served as chairman of discussion from 1911 to 1920, was made honorary vice-president for life and received a similar token of appreciation.

Mrs. James P. Cowley, Mrs. Bernadette Hodges, Mrs. Joseph A. Cahill, Mrs. William Kloss and Mrs. William Foster, all prominently identified with the social and athletic life of Brooklyn, will act as patronesses of the dance to be given at Hotel Pennsylvania on Thursday by the Women's Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

The New York Mozart Society Golf Circle will hold another golf tournament on Thursday, June 9, at the Quaker Run Golf Club, Manorville. There will be first and second prizes for both men and women and play for the President's cup will be continued.

Knickerbocker Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its annual election of officers last Friday at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Charles Ellis Taft was elected regent, Mrs. J. Spokes Kress, first vice-regent; Mrs. Charles Terhune, second vice-regent; Mrs. E. C. Harris, treasurer; Mrs. James W. Stoker, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur Leary, corresponding secretary; Mrs. I. Curtis Brackett, registrar, and Mrs. F. W. Truga, librarian. Mrs. Simon Baruck was elected honorary regent.

The annual meeting of the Queensboro League of Mothers Clubs, Mrs. Park Mathewson, president, will be held at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Saturday afternoon. The meeting will be opened with community singing followed by reports and the installation of officers. There will also be addresses by Sidonie Matzner Gruenberg, author and vice-president of the Federation for Child Study, and Dr. Winifred Sackville Stanger, who will talk on "Educational Play." There will be vocal numbers by Mrs. Louis Dutton. The meeting will close with the singing of the New York State Mothers Song.

Another evidence of the activities of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs was the garden party held last Saturday on the place of William White Niles, 204th street and Bainbridge avenue, when Girl Scouts acted as guides to the guests and as a prelude to the programme gave a salute to the flag.

While a garden party gives impression of social gaiety this occasion was arranged by the Conservation Committee with Mrs. Charles Cyrus Marshall, chairman, in order that the problems of our national and city parks might be discussed and brought more forcibly to the attention of the general public. Some two thousand heard the addresses and necessity of conservation as put forth by speakers, among them being Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, whose subject was "Prospect Park," Mrs. Harry Taft, "Central Park," Mrs. John Clapperton Kerr, "Riverside Park," the latter urging in view of legislation having failed that individual effort be strenuously continued and yearly bills introduced. Mr. William W. Niles spoke of "Bronx River Parkway," and Major Barrington Moore, "Our National Park."

With three rooms filled with players, the National California Club gave a card game at the Waldorf-Astoria, Tuesday for the benefit of the Reserve Fund, which has been used in great part for the welfare of the men who were in service.

The affair was in charge of Messrs. Robert S. Maffitt, Charles V. Seaman, Russell Bassett, S. P. Bartley, William R. Stewart, William T. Martin, William J. Hall, Francis H. Carlyle, E. W. W. W. Virgil G. Thomas, with Mrs. Charles A. Beck chairman.

Under the auspices of the French Veterans of the World War, the Ash. Brenot, tenor, and his wife, Mme. Yvonne Frank Brenot, coloratura soprano, will give a farewell concert at the Hotel Pennsylvania to-night.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Arlington Presbyterian Church held its fortnightly luncheon at the Hotel Boscawen on Wednesday. The seven charter members, Mrs. Frederick Joel Swift, Mrs. John C. Creveling, Mrs. Samuel Jordan, Mrs. John M. Gardner, Mrs. B. L. Haines, Mrs. S. B. Van Buren and Mrs. T. E. Gruber, were present and contributed to the programme which followed.

The closing event of the season of the Society of Illinois Women, Mrs. Thomas Slack president, was the May luncheon last Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Charles, 588 Riverside Drive, one of the charter members of the society and also vice-president. Receiving with her were Mrs. Slack, Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, Mildred Holland, Josephine Smart, F. F. Thul, H. W. McDonald, H. M. Olmsted and Thomas Hilton.

The class of 1921, New York Chapter American Institute of Banking, will celebrate the completion of its three year banking course by a dinner at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Saturday evening. Mr. G. A. Kinney is the retiring president, Mr. William Felek, newly elected president, and Mr. W. A. Brown, secretary.

About one hundred and fifty are expected to attend the fifth annual dinner of the class of 1914 of the College of the City of New York, which will be held on Friday evening at the Hotel Pennsylvania. Prof. Carleton R. Brown, dean of the college, will be the guest of honor and will give a short informal talk.

"Court Etiquette Night" will be held by the University Forum of America Tuesday evening at the headquarters of the club, 263 West Ninety-third street. Count Z. Voipolelli, commander of the Crown of Italy and for twenty years the Consul-General for Italy in South China, will speak on "Court Etiquette: My Experiences."

Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers Chapman have left the city for their home at Shelburne, N. H., where they will spend the summer months. Their home, which was formerly known as the Ashton Estate, is situated half way between Poland Springs and Bretton Woods, and is always open to members of the Rubenstein Club, of which Mr. Chapman is president, when on tours through the White Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman expect to return to New York in October and open their apartment at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Making a New Record in Silk Values

Matchless "Tal-Ly-Ho" Sports Silks

Heretofore Sold at $6 and $6.50

$3.95 Yard

TUESDAY will have no more extraordinary offering in all the city than this of the most beautiful sports silks—and the most famous—known in all this land at the new low price of $3.95 a yard.

"Tal-Ly-Ho" Silks have won their wide fame by deserving it. They make the most beautiful sports skirts, blouses, dresses, sweaters, hats, vests, collar and cuff sets, parasols, summer hand bags, etc. They are not only beautiful but extremely durable. They serve—and serve splendidly in everything that suggests the week end costume, the traveling outfit and sports clothes.

Heretofore these silks have sold here at $5.98 a yard—nowhere for less. In many good stores of this city the price has been $6.50. Now we have them, in full range of the new patterns and color combinations for the summer, at $3.95 a yard.

There are perhaps fifty color schemes, so that choice is very broad. The silks are all 40 inches wide; the best width for service. There is an especially full variety of all white silks and also all black silks. Indeed, there is nothing missing that could be desired—and there is a low price that will stir the enthusiasm of every woman who sees what is available at Loeser's on Tuesday.

Main Floor, Bond Street.

Another Special Offering of

$8.75 Fiber Silk Sweaters at $5

A SPECIAL EVENT offering pure Fiber Silk Sweaters at this low price stirred such interest last week as to call for a repetition of the opportunity. Sweaters of this quality have long demanded a much higher price; so they are fully justified in the admiration they receive at $5 a piece.

Tuxedo models made with well shaped shoulders and narrow cuffs, are finished with two pockets and sash girdles. The lustrous finish can hardly be distinguished from the real silk, and the plain and drop stitch weaves are the same you see in expensive Sweaters.

All the most wanted shades of the season are represented—Bisque, navy, honeydew, Copenhagen, jade, tomato and henna; also black and white. Sizes 36 to 46.

Great Sale of Men's Shirts

Today's Values Up to $2 : At 98c

Your Choice of Printed

Corded Madras and Fine Percals

ANOTHER of THESE GREAT SHIRT SALES you have learned to expect at the Loeser Store. This time the quantity involved is more than 25,000 Shirts, made the Loeser way, with plenty of fullness where it should be and fitting where they should fit, with beaded neck band, box plait down front and finished with a good quality of pearl buttons—the better kind of Shirts; made of printed corded madras and fine percales; neat stripe patterns over light ground, in many color effects.

Sizes from 13 1/2 to 18. Accurate sleeve lengths, 33, 34 and 35 inches.

Reductions in Lingerie Blouses

With Special Opportunity for Summer Wardrobe

REPRESENTING the pretty styles in our regular stock, these white lingerie Blouses are particularly significant in good value. Selected from the incomplete stocks of the spring and summer styles, they have a special advantage in price for clearance.

$2.95 and $3.95 Blouses at $2

Overblouses and tuck-in styles in white or flesh color are in semi-tailored effects or trimmed with lace. Many have the new Peter Pan collars, and they have three-quarter or long sleeves.

$3.95 French Voile Overblouses, $2.95

Ten different models to select from. Five are regulation style and other Overblouses, finely made of sheer voiles. Many have real filet and Irish lace trimming. A lovely summer costume can be evolved from one of these effective Overblouses and a white skirt.

$5.95 Blouses at $3.95

Sheer muslin Blouses in six different styles make this interesting group. There is much real filet lace in the decoration. One slip-on model is hand embroidered with real filet lace insertion. Another is of fine French voile in overblouse style with frill of narrow plaiting.

Sizes 36 to 46.
